

Claudia Jones

100

her life and work in South
London

Saturday 21st February

2pm-6pm FREE

at Kennington Park Estate Community Centre, 8 Harleyford Street, SE11 5SY near Oval tube station Buses: 36, 155, 185, 333, 436 Also: 3, 59, 133, 159, 415

Claudia Jones was a community organiser, founder of the West Indian Gazette, mother of the Notting Hill Carnival and a political campaigner.

We have found that she lived and worked in the Oval and Stockwell area between 1956 and 1964.

This day is the 100th anniversary of her birth.

History Walk Talks* Hot food

Bookstall Exhibition

Live music

Anita Shervington, Director & founder of Community Perspectives, will be delivering a presentation on Science, Technology, Engineering and Maths inequality, and the role of Black Women and Girls in the future of STEM - for development.

Cherise Adams-Burnett (right) will sing A Musical Tribute to Claudia Jones with Gary Crosby, double-bass.

Come and explore the world of Claudia Jones!

A Remembering Claudia Jones event organised by Community Support.

Phone 020-7582 8248. Email: communitysupport@email.com